

THE CANALES PROJECT presents – Finding Your Voice!

PROGRAM SUMMARY

We invite you to join us for an awesome learning experience focused on engaging young people in crossing cultural divides by creating and presenting unique performances about their cultural heritage and traditions.

Carla Dirlikov Canales, a world renowned opera singer and the Founder of The Canales Project, will be visiting Tucson with The Canales Project Artist Team to lead learning intensives that engage participants in self-reflection and exploration of their identity, belonging and culture plus voice training. Participants will collaborate to create a performance that spotlights their stories and enables them to use their voices to create stronger bonds between diverse communities.

2016-2017 Program Schedule

Dates: Saturday, March 18th through Monday, March 20th

Location: BGCT Administrative Office, 3155 E. Grant Road

Times: 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. each day

Notes: Food will be provided. Transportation can be arranged if needed.

Spring Intensive – March 18th-20th

- Bridges Made of Song
Participants will develop art, activities and performances that incorporate songs and stories about their cultural heritage to be presented in their community.
 - Youth as Teachers
Participants will learn about the skills and sensitivity needed to transfer the lessons of cultural awareness and understanding explored in the program into their lives.
- *The focus of this session will be on equipping participants to build their cultural awareness and understanding of other people in ways that reduce tension, conflict and divisions between us all.
- Certificate of Completion
All participants who complete the program will receive certificates acknowledging their achievement.
